August 21st, 2017 Minneapolis, MN – BTW Incorporated is proud to announce and welcome Amanda Oldre to our customer focus team as Account Manager. Amanda will be responsible for working with an all-star team of professionals focused on executing customer needs and building strong relationships while continuing BTW Inc. tradition of exemplary customer service and quality initiatives.

Amanda joins the BTW Inc. team with more than 13 years of sales, customer service, and program management experience. Her attention to detail, pride in facilitation, and focus will ensure our customers every need is met with precise execution. Amanda’s industry knowledge and manufacturing experience combined with her ability to effectively manage high volume will all be relevant in her new position with BTW Inc.

“I am honored to be a part of such an innovative group of people. The atmosphere is very exciting and upbeat. Great things are happening at BTW!” said Amanda

Bill Bartley, President of BTW Inc. states “We are thrilled that Amanda has joined our growing team of professionals. Amanda’s commitment to the highest standards of customer care and business ethics makes her an ideal fit for BTW Inc.”
